Direct / Indirect Speech – Practice

Put the dialogue between Dorothy and the Scarecrow in Indirect Speech:

Scarecrow: How are you?

Dorothy: I'm very well, thank you. How are you?

Scarecrow: I'm not feeling very well high on this pole. I can't get down.

Dorothy: I'm sorry for you. I will help you down.

Scarecrow: I feel like a new man now. Thank you very much.

Dorothy: It's very strange. I've never seen a stuffed man who can walk and talk.

Scarecrow: Who are you and where are you going?

Dorothy: My name is Dorothy and I'm going to the Emerald City.

Scarecrow: I have never heard of the Emerald City, I have no brains. Can the wizard of oz give me some brains?

Dorothy: I can't tell, but you may come with me if you like.
